Partner

About

Paul conducts a complex commercial litigation practice with an emphasis on class action defense, health care and government regulatory litigation, and compliance. He has represented numerous clients in False Claims Act cases and internal investigations both in litigation and in response to regulatory investigations. Paul has counseled health care clients regarding compliance with Medicare and Medicaid statutes and regulations, the Stark law, the Deficit Reduction Act and other anti-fraud statutes.

In addition to his health care practice, Paul has significant communications and class action experience. He has defended clients facing putative class actions in a wide range of different areas including employment, communications, banking, and agricultural pricing.
