

Christopher Hunchuck

Counsel

About

Chris is an experienced attorney specializing in e-discovery, complex civil litigations, and internal investigations, with extensive experience in developing factual records through discovery.

Before joining Hilgers, Chris was a litigation associate at an AmLaw 100 firm. Chris focused his practice on defending clients at all stages of civil and criminal litigation in federal and state courts, including all aspects of e-discovery. Chris is also an active member of the Allegheny County Bar Association, including the softball and basketball leagues, and contributes to the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Federal Practice Committee.

Chris lives in Pittsburgh with his wife Carly, their little girl, and their 2 dogs. In his free time Chris enjoys spending time with his family, reading a good book, or watching a good movie.
