

Rose Hunter Jones

Partner

About

Rose is dedicated to understanding and managing the intersection of legal and technical issues that now largely dominate American and global litigation, data breach response, and government investigations. She devotes her entire practice to crisis management, eData, and technology. Rose is ranked in Chambers USA and Chambers Global as one of the world's top lawyers in e-discovery litigation practice. According to Chambers USA, Rose is a "seasoned counsellor to clients on diverse e-discovery concerns as they relate to government investigations" while Legal 500 notes "Rose Jones is particularly experienced in cross-functional collaboration, advising businesses on information governance, data privacy and security, and discovery."
