

Jill Proctor

Counsel

About

Jill is a member of the Hilgers e-discovery team where she uses her extensive knowledge of electronic discovery processes and technology to reduce client risk and costs. She has a wide range of litigation experience, including product liability and class action cases, contract disputes, environmental litigation, and consumer fraud matters.

Jill also has substantial experience coordinating and conducting large scale electronic document reviews and assisting clients through the various phases of pre-trial discovery. She has worked on the review and production of documents for a wide range of clients, including two major pharmaceutical companies, a wireless systems manufacturer, a computer network vendor and a national cable company.

Jill currently lives in San Diego with her husband, Tom, and four children.
