

Manuel Prado-Oviedo

Counsel

About

Manuel has many years of experience working on complex large scale discovery intensive matters. Before joining Hilgers, Manuel worked for DLA Piper, Covington & Burling LLP, and Willkie Farr & Gallagher where he worked on large scale FCPA, antitrust, merger, intellectual property, class action, and false claim matters. He also worked on high profile congressional and internal investigations. He enjoys learning about the regulatory climate of other countries and how that relates to FCPA issues.
