Noelle Mize
Counsel

About

Noelle is an accomplished attorney with 19 years of expertise in eDiscovery and legal project management. A pioneer in the field, she began her career during the launch of the Electronic Discovery Reference Model in 2005. Her deep knowledge of eDiscovery allows her to navigate the complexities of digital evidence and compliance with precision.

Noelle excels in managing large-scale document review projects, guiding clients through every stage of discovery from collection to production. Known for anticipating client needs, she implements strategic solutions that streamline processes and ensure legal requirements are met.

Her career is defined by her adaptability, effectively utilizing both traditional eDiscovery methods and advanced AI platforms to handle vast data sets. She resides in Tennessee with her husband Earle and their dogs Jack and Sally.
