

Thomas Swanson

Senior Counsel

About

Thomas represents clients in a broad range of complex commercial litigation matters. His experience spans all phases of state and federal litigation, from conducting pre-suit investigations, and drafting and responding to dispositive motions, to managing e-discovery and expert witnesses, taking depositions, and preparing pre-trial and trial motions, and through appeal and execution of judgment.

His commercial litigation experience includes state and federal class action and multi-district litigation, antitrust, negligence, breach of contract, fraud and nuisance cases, and advising clients in the tech, financial, insurance, energy, manufacturing, and service industries.

Thomas has also represented clients pro bono in cases raising constitutional issues related to speech, religious exercise, housing, incarceration, immigration, and property rights.
