

Ashley N. Gould

Senior Counsel

About

For over a decade, Ashley Gould has represented businesses in complex commercial litigation, helping clients resolve disputes that can disrupt core business operations. Clients rely on Ashley for strategic, responsive advocacy throughout all stages of litigation in state and federal courts across the country.

Ashley's practice includes contract disputes and business torts across a range of industries, including health care, construction, aviation, real estate and sports-related entities. She has represented clients in state and federal courts nationwide.

Ashley's favorite part of litigation is solving complex problems that arise in discovery, including e-discovery challenges, where cases are often made or broken. Ashley has managed document reviews, productions, and privilege logs with hundreds of thousands of documents for a variety of businesses, including collegiate athletic conferences, commercial real estate companies, and health care conglomerates. Clients value Ashley's ability to handle complex discovery and electronically stored information efficiently and cost-effectively.

Ashley's approach emphasizes clear communication, strategic problem-solving and practical execution. She works closely with clients to ensure litigation strategies align with business priorities while pursuing favorable outcomes.
