About

From the courtroom to the boardroom, Kyle L. Hanson brings over 30 years of high-stakes corporate, regulatory and complex litigation experience to Hilgers. With a background of handling complex multi-jurisdictional matters, her practice focuses on commercial litigation, class actions, risk management, internal and government investigations, M&A, and advising corporate boards on governance and regulatory strategy.

Kyle transitions to private practice following her service as General Counsel for the Nebraska Attorney General's Office. Prior to her public service, she spent over two decades leading legal operations for prominent publicly traded companies. She was responsible for leading global legal and compliance functions and managing large litigation matters as Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary for Perrigo Company plc and Senior Vice President and General Counsel for Wolverine Worldwide. She also established the inaugural legal department for national retailer The Buckle, Inc. Her courtroom experience includes serving as a trial attorney for Mutual of Omaha Companies and practicing as a litigation associate at Kutak Rock LLP.
